Dear Sir/Madam,

Thank you sincerely for your detailed feedback and for taking the time to share the relevant information. We are dedicated to cultivating a safe, green, and respectful community for all users.

We have carefully reviewed all the content referenced in your recent submissions. Our assessment indicates that the reviewed cases include both situations that do not constitute violations of our platform policies, as well as cases where enforcement actions have been taken in accordance with our Community Guidelines.

All reviews and actions were conducted strictly in line with our established policies and standards. For reasons related to user privacy, safety, and compliance obligations, we are unable to disclose specific case details or enforcement outcomes.

Should you identify any additional content that you believe may violate our policies, you may submit the relevant in-app evidence through the appropriate reporting channels, and we will review such information in accordance with our standard procedures.

We appreciate user feedback and community oversight and remain committed to continuously improving our moderation and governance processes to maintain a safe and orderly platform environment.

Best regards,
Customer Support Team
